Organization: Children’s Center of the Stanford Community
Position: Substitute Teacher
Hours: Monday – Friday (varied hours between 8:30am-6:00pm)

About CCSC:
The Children’s Center of the Stanford Community (CCSC) is grounded in the belief that children are competent, curious, resourceful learners. Our inspiration comes from the RIE approach, the schools of Reggio Emilia, Italy and Socio-Constructivism.

Children’s interests and explorations provide the framework for curriculum and investigation. Our thoughtful and intentionally designed environments foster children’s experiences, relationships and opportunities for cooperative work. Materials are selected with purpose to provoke creativity and wonder, building upon children’s interests.

Our work with children hinges on respectful, collaborative relationships between staff, families and the community. The active participation of our parents is an essential element in the life of our school.

We are looking for creative, dedicated substitute teachers* to work with children ages 2 months to 5 years. Help provide a loving, nurturing and safe environment for the children and families of Stanford University! *Possibility of permanent work depending on need.

Job Responsibilities
• Assist teachers in planning, supervising, and implementing developmentally appropriate experiences for the class according to the principles and philosophy of CCSC
• Create learning environments that support emotional, cognitive, social, and physical growth in children

Job Requirements
• At least 6 months experience working with children in a licensed child care center or comparable group care program preferred
• At least (6) ECE units preferred
• Flexibility and enthusiasm
• Friendly, warm and nurturing characteristics
• Available Monday through Friday (varied hours between 8:30am and 6:00pm)
• CPR/AED certification (first aid certification is a plus)

If interested and qualified, please send a letter of interest and resume to lobringer@ccscparentcoop.org