Looking for an Experienced Infant Program Teacher

About CCSC:
The Children’s Center of the Stanford Community (CCSC) is grounded in the belief that children are competent, curious, resourceful learners. Our inspiration comes from the RIE approach, the schools of Reggio Emilia, Italy and Socio-Constructivism.

Children’s interests and explorations provide the framework for curriculum and investigation. Our thoughtful and intentionally designed environments foster children’s experiences, relationships and opportunities for cooperative work. Materials are selected with purpose to provoke creativity and wonder, building upon children’s interests.

Our work with children hinges on respectful, collaborative relationships between staff, families and the community. The active participation of our parents is an essential element in the life of our school.

We are looking for a creative, dedicated teacher to work in our Infant Program classroom. Join our team and help provide a loving, nurturing and safe environment for the children and families of Stanford University!

Job Responsibilities
- Collaborate with team in planning, supervising and implementing developmentally appropriate experiences for the class according to the principles and philosophy of CCSC.
- Create learning environments that support emotional, cognitive, social and physical growth in children.

Job Requirements
- 12 or more ECE units, including Infant/Toddler Units (AA and/or BA degree in ECE or related field and teacher permit preferred)*
- At least 6 months experience working with children in a licensed child care center or comparable group care program preferred
- Flexibility and enthusiasm
- Friendly, warm and nurturing characteristics
- Available Monday through Friday
- Bachelor's Degree preferred
- CPR/AED certification (first aid certification is a plus)

Full Time Position
Full benefits package, competitive salary.
If interested and qualified, please send a letter of interest and resume to agnes@ccscparentcoop.org